Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file is classified as objectionable because it tends to promote and support the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes. It is a sexualised image of a partially naked girl who appears to be an older child or young teen. There is no credible alternate reading of the image other than it is intended for the sexual arousal of persons with a predilection for young girls. It supports the notion that children and young persons are legitimate subjects for adult sexual arousal. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and is a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to limit the availability of publications that tend to promote and support the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes.
